LEON HEADS MARYLAND ASSOCIATION

Leon Auerbach was elected president of the Maryland Association of the Deaf Saturday during the convention held in Ocean City, Md. He succeeded Bill Stevens who was named a member at large. Carol Garretson was elected secretary.

The MAD and Virginia Association of the Deaf are affiliated with the National Association of the Deaf. These groups work towards promoting the welfare of deaf citizens, guard against legislation that would be unfair to the hearing impaired and strongly support the use of total communication.

Members of the faculty and staff are encouraged to join and become involved in the association in their respective states. More information may be had by contacting the NAD office, 587-1788.

OTHER NEW FACES ON THE GREEN

Joseph J.M. Sgro became our new director of Development as of August 1, succeeding David Peikoff, who retired from the post in June, 1970. Responsible for assessing the college's needs for non-Federal funds, Joe can be found in Room 117, HMB.

Richard V. Martin assumed the post of Purchasing Agent this Monday. He comes to Gallaudet from St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore where he was associated with the Hospital Services and Supply Center, Inc. as Director, System Planning.

Along with Dr. Norman J. Tully, the Associate Director of Counselor Training, the Counseling and Placement Center has added several other new faces: James Magness, student counselor; Robert Mehan, project supervisor; and Dr. Raymond Trybus, clinical psychologist.

The Student Union now has a director, Phillip Kersetter, who comes to Gallaudet from the University of Delaware. He will reside in the Union and be responsible for the overall development and supervision of all student leisure time activities.

The Bookstore has a new secretary, Linda Carr, and Donna Morganstern will be working in the Tutorial Center. Mary B. Thompson recently began working for the English department as a clerk typist and Judith Lee is a new secretary in Demographic Studies.

FAMILIAR FACES IN NEW PLACES

Margaret George, formerly in Personnel, is now secretary in Purchasing....Having served as administrative secretary/interpreter at the MSSD, Lee Katz is now the administrative assistant to the Dean of the Continuing Education program. Lee is presently working with Dr. Cornett and Joe Sgro until a dean is appointed....

Audrey Armstrong has moved down the hall from the Registrar's office to the Office of the Dean of Men and Women where she is secretary.

AROUND AND ABOUT...

On Friday afternoon, the Deputy Chief of Education Offices for Ghana, Mr. J. Samson Ocran, visited the campus. Mr. Ocran is interested in learning about all facets of education of the deaf....The Tutorial Center held an open house on September 8 from 3 to 5 p.m. to acquaint the faculty and staff with its services. Equipment should be arriving shortly for the Tutorial Center's new language lab....There were 1092 prep, undergraduate and graduate students who registered for the fall semester.

AMONG OURSELVES...

Elaine Hirsch will be leaving her present job as secretary in Personnel and Budget Planning on Friday to return to her college studies at the University of North Colorado where she will be a sophomore majoring in education of the deaf....John Buchanan from the Business Office shot a hole-in-one last weekend and reportedly has not been worth a darn since.

HAVE YOU BEEN LOOKING FOR...?

Dr. Cornett is now in Room 113 of HMB. Dean Riekehof has moved to Room 120 of HMB. The Graduate School is in its temporary headquarters in the Counseling and Placement Center. Purchasing is now on the second floor of College Hall.

GOALS FOR 1971-72

A booklet, Administrative Goals for 1971-72, listing goals which the College hopes to pursue in the coming year has been released. Copies have been made available to all chairmen and unit heads. The Office of Public Information has a copy for anyone who would like to see it.

COMING FILM ATTRACTIONS

"From Russia With Love" and "To Be A Crook" on Friday, Sept. 17 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Both films have subtitles. Students 75¢ and others $1.25.

"The Great Race" and "Gambit" on Sunday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Both films are captioned and there is no admission charge.

NEW RESIDENCE HALL SUPERVISORS

William Yount, whose wife Barbara is supervisor at Peet Hall, and Henry Young, who comes to us from the Tennessee School for the Deaf, are the two new supervisors at Ely Hall. Kent Winchester, a full-time graduate student here, and his wife are at the new dorm. Their telephone number there is 4931. Peet Hall also has two new supervisors, Ruth Fangmeier, who worked at MSSD last year, and Jeanne Manning from Terre Haute, Ind. Inez Thomas is in Fowler Hall and Cogswell's head resident is Katherine Walker, mother of Sally Wagner in the Tutorial Center.

OLD PAPER, NEW PURPOSE

This issue is printed on 100% Bergstrom Recycled Bond compliments of the Wilcox-Walter-Furlong Paper Co. of Washington. This recycled paper is made from used paper -- perhaps the sheet you are reading is part of a letter you wrote!
